

MURPHY GAINS IN CURLEY STRONGHOLD

Ward 12 Democratic Committee Votes 11 to 1 to Support Charlestown Man

An indication that the profound swing to Murphy during the last six days is making itself felt in the old strongholds of James M. Curley, the John R. Murphy headquarters announced today that the Ward 12 Democratic Committee last night, by a vote of 11 to 1, endorsed the Murphy candidacy.

This is the ward which was second only to Ward 12, the Tammany stronghold, in Curley's strength four years ago, and Chairman Frank D. White of the ward committee asserts that there has been a remarkable reversal of sentiment. Representative James A. Gools of this ward has been on the stump for Murphy since early in the campaign.

The Murphy strength in Roxbury is surprising political observers, for in the early days of the campaign the

Big Rally Tonight at Symphony Hall for Murphy

A great non-partisan rally for the election of John R. Murphy will be held in Symphony Hall tonight.

Mayor Andrew J. Peters will preside. In addition to Mr. Murphy and Mayor Peters, the speakers will be former Lieutenant Governor J. D. Cushing, who is chairman of the Republican City Committee; former Congressman Joseph A. Conry, Mrs. Hilda Hedstrom Quirk, Mrs. George R. Feargus, Jr., and City Councilor Walter L. Collins.

The doors will be open at 6:30. There will be a band concert and novel features from 7 o'clock until 9. When Mayor Peters will open the rally.

district from Edward Everett square to Jamaica Plain was conceded to Curley. Many attribute the shift in sentiment to the influence of Sheriff John A. Keeler, whose declaration for Murphy has been one of the significant developments of the last few days.

He has a tremendous following in the Roxbury district, particularly in the political clubs, such as the Marshall Club and Shawmut Club of Ward 12. The Murphy managers claim Ward 12 by a big majority, and believe that the endorsement of Murphy by Representatives James J. Mulvey and Stephen R. Moore, and by former Representative William A. Canty in Ward 12 will give them the edge in that section.

Murphy to Be Only Man at Women's Rally

A meeting advertised as an "All Women's Rally of Women and Men" will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in the Capitol Theatre in the interests of John R. Murphy.

Only one man will be allowed inside the theatre, and that will be the candidate himself. Music will be furnished by a women's orchestra, and the speakers will be members of the Boston League of Women Voters. The women have asked the newspapers to assign only women reporters to cover the rally.

Mrs. Hilda Hedstrom Quirk will preside and the speakers will include Mrs. Mary Morton Wheeler, chairman of the women's division of the League of Women Voters; Mrs. William O'Reilly, Florence H. Luscombe, Mrs. William Healy, chairman of the municipal election committee; Mrs. William H. Gray, Mrs. Anna M. Mahan, Marian C. Nichols and Mrs. D. W. Wilson. Mrs. John R. Murphy will be an invited guest.

Baxter Expects Victory on Progressive Program

Charles B. Baxter, speaking at Green Brothers' Carriage Company, North street, and the Ferguson Building, State street, last night, said: "First I want to assure you that I am most confident of winning the election. I have been at any time during the campaign. The trend of unbalanced thought in Democratic circles toward my candidacy is swelling daily. Despite the desperate efforts of Democratic party and party Republican bosses to stop it."

"Some of the smaller fry, most of them who have been defeated in their efforts to become leaders of the Republican party in this city and state, are now afraid to offend the 'Good Gov.' and have allowed themselves to be used to assist a Democratic line, instead of the Republican line."

"Murphy was one of the men who fought Roosevelt in 1912 when I directed the campaign of the great American in New England. Bosses of both parties were against me. They are against me now."

"I have presented the only progressive program that any candidate has presented, and I expect to win upon that program and upon my record."

GALLIVAN WILL SPEAK FOR O'CONNOR

Appears Tonight at Mass Meeting in Mechanics Hall After Auto Parade

Congressman James A. Gallivan will speak tonight in Mechanics Hall at a mass meeting in support of the Mayor's candidacy of Charles S. O'Connor. The meeting will be presided over by an automobile parade through the downtown districts.

According to announcements from O'Connor headquarters, the meeting is billed as "an exposure of Curleyism and Goolism."

Continuing his campaign in a series of mass meetings last night, O'Connor predicted that he would defeat both Curley and Murphy and announced that he is the only candidate not controlled by a political machine.

SKELETON MAY REVEAL OLD MURDER

Weymouth Folk Link Ghastly Find With Disappearance of Man 30 Years Ago

Murder, committed long ago, lies behind the finding of a human skeleton on the roadside in South Weymouth shortly before dawn today.

It is the theory of the Weymouth police. Such is the conviction of the residents of South Weymouth, still shuddering over the ghastly discovery. Who dug up the skeleton from its dark hiding place during the early hours of the night and laid it on the town dump on South Main street? What motive could the person have had?

On the answers to these questions hangs the solution of a murder mystery of years' standing. The "murder" was committed, it is believed, by a side-show Barker, disappeared in South Weymouth, on South Main street.

The same reason old residents were convinced today that the skeleton was that of the "hulky" man and that he had been slain.

The skeleton was not on the dump at night. The spot where it was found is fully exposed to the public.

What motive anybody could have had in digging it forth after all the years remains a mystery.

Concord, N. H., Dec. 8.—The case of Earl H. Fitzhugh against the Grand Trunk, Central Vermont railroads and others, which has been on trial here for fifteen days, suddenly ended at noon today, when counsel announced that an agreement had been reached. Shortly before noon Judge Sawyer was informed that the case had been settled. Counsel refused to discuss the terms of the settlement.

Fitzhugh brought suit for $200,000, claiming the defendants had forced his resignation as president of the Central Vermont Railroad and had made it impossible for him to obtain work along the lines in which he had been trained. He resigned from the Central Vermont in 1911.

Fresh From Paris Latest Word From Marie Suzanne

Paris, France.
Quite recently, at a formal afternoon occasion in Paris, black velvet appeared in a particularly impressive mood. Its square-necked, tight-sleeved bodice is girdled at a low waistline in black satin, having its short ends fringed with black silk, and there is a tunic which reaches just below the knees, heavily braided across the bottom and up the sides in black silk. The small black velvet hat worn with this gown is trimmed with a rising point of aigrettes at the front.

A COAT-ROCK designed by Worth follows the lines of the popular chemise dress. The bodice blouse into a giraffe of the same material, corded, and the skirt hangs from this low waistline with some fulness. When brown satin makes the coat, and black monkey fur trims it.

SUPREME COURT HEARS PLEA BY PELLETTIER

Rugg Grants More Time to File Reply; Judges to Pass on Deferring Trial

District Attorney Joseph C. Pelletier appeared before the full bench of the Supreme Judicial Court today to argue his motion for an extension of time from December 15, the date set for the trial of the charges upon which Attorney General Allen is asking the court to not Pelletier from office.

After listening to the District Attorney's reasons and to Attorney General Allen's response, Chief Justice Thayer announced that Pelletier would be granted further time in which to file an answer to the charges pending the decision of the court on his motion for deferring the trial date.

In his argument for changing the date of trial, Pelletier said he had filed on November 22 a petition to restrain the justice of the court from sitting in judgment on the Allen charges, and that on November 23 Justice DeCoursey had dismissed that motion. He added that he now wants to have his petition taken up by the entire bench of the court.

Another reason he gave for asking more time was that Allen had filed on November 23 additional information in the original bill, each one of the new charges. He stated that the time allowed him was insufficient in which to investigate each of these charges properly, to obtain the needed witnesses and to ascertain just what these witnesses would say when he presented them in court.

He also said that he intended to raise the constitutional question whether the Legislature had the right to designate the justice of the court to select officers in the Bureau Court.

Father Falls to Death When Son Frees Him From Tree Trap

Owen F. Short, who had been hired to repair some trees at the corner of Melrose and Vinson streets, Melrose, which had been damaged in the recent sleet storm, was killed while at that work today.

Short, who was forty years old and lived at No. 4 Grove street, Melrose, saved off a large limb in such a manner that it pinned him by the neck against another limb. Short's son, who happened to be passing, and some other young men, sawing the lower end of the limb outward in an attempt to release him. When they did so, Short fell twenty-five feet.

Dr. L. D. Parley went to the Melrose Hospital. He lived but a few minutes.

Attorney General Allen said he had nothing to add to what he had already said regarding the need for speedy trial of the case, and that he had informed the district attorney that the attorney-general's office was prepared to furnish him with any information he might find difficult in obtaining the truth of his case.

Allen also said that the State would continue considerable time in presenting its side of the case, during which Pelletier might be continuing his investigation of the case and charges brought against him.

LONGSHOREMEN QUIT, ASK FOR $1.30 AN HOUR

Dispute Over Rate of Pay Following Fire Causes 200 to Walk Out

Two hundred longshoremen employed at Piers 2 and 4 of the Long Island Line, and Pier 3 of the Cunard Line, Marginal street, East Boston, went on strike today.

The strike is an outgrowth of a fire in the hold of the steamship Arcturion at Pier 3 Monday night. The ship brought a cargo of Egyptian cotton, and the fire caused an estimated $25,000 loss.

Longshoremen on the Arcturion insisted in clearing the hold where the fire occurred, for which work they received a special rate of $1.30 an hour. It is claimed as salvaging operations under their agreement.

When transferred to other work on the Arcturion they claimed that their rate was to remain at $1.30, claiming that owing to the extent of the ship fire, it all came under the salvage classification. This claim was refused by their employers, the E. S. Booth Company, following which the men on the Arcturion quit work.

Today the Booth Company, where dock contractors on the East Boston waterfront, submitted 100 strike-breakers for the men who had left the Arcturion, which is scheduled to sail Saturday.

A detail of police with Sergeant Patrick J. Fitzgerald was assigned to the docks, but until noon today there had been no disorders.

CRIME EXPERT IS ADMIRER OF WALLINGFORD

Carrington Says Swindler Is Splendid Example of Personal Magnetism

By H. CARRINGTON, Ph.D., Author of "Modern Psychological Phenomena," "The Problem of Psychological Research," etc.
The psychology of the criminal is a relatively new science. Until lately, it was thought that the criminal was merely a hardened rascal, who must be punished and put into prison. But now we believe that it is largely because he is mentally, morally and physically sick that he is what he is. He should be treated and cured, not punished.

There are all kinds of "crazies" in the world from plain hold-up and "sneak-thief" men to swindlers who employ all the fine arts of psychology in their work. "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford" is a swindler of the latter class.

SWINDLER REFORMS

He undoubtedly started out as plain swindler; but Fate stepped in. In the form of a girl, and changed his outlook upon life, so that he wished to reform. By a combination of happy circumstances he actually made good and became an honest man in spite of himself. And there was much good in J. Rufus.

"Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford" is a splendid example of the power of personal magnetism and suggestion, as applied in daily life. Suggestion helps to give our lives. We live in a world in which suggestions pour upon us every hand-by-way of speech, action, example, looks, environment, and in a thousand and one ways which we do not, perhaps, recognize. These affect our lives greatly.

Suggestion depends for its effect upon certain factors: (1) Power of suggestion; (2) repetition; (3) appeal; (4) association with other interesting and "fixed" things; (5) appeal to fundamental emotions; (6) power of reaching the subconscious mind; and there talking, etc.

Actress Whose Father Is Commander of Giant Ocean Liner

Alison Bradshaw Was Born and Educated in England but Is an American Citizen

ALISON BRADSHAW.

Alison Bradshaw was born and educated in England but is an American citizen.

If you ever crossed the ocean upon the giant liner Lapland of the Red Star line you will be interested to know that Alison Bradshaw, whose fascinating little personality makes her a great success in the theatre, is the daughter of the captain of that ship.

Miss Bradshaw is an American citizen, though born in England and educated there and in Belgium, because her father had become an American citizen many years ago. And it was while American citizenship which enabled him to be one of the important assistants to Herbert Hoover in dealing the Belgians in the late war.

Miss Bradshaw has only been on the stage three years. Her first appearance was with "Wilde Kerst" in "The Crowded Hour" and part of the last season she supported "Therese" in "The Miracle," but left the east before that play came to Boston.

Alison Bradshaw was born and educated in England but is an American citizen. If you ever crossed the ocean upon the giant liner Lapland of the Red Star line you will be interested to know that Alison Bradshaw, whose fascinating little personality makes her a great success in the theatre, is the daughter of the captain of that ship.

Miss Bradshaw is an American citizen, though born in England and educated there and in Belgium, because her father had become an American citizen many years ago. And it was while American citizenship which enabled him to be one of the important assistants to Herbert Hoover in dealing the Belgians in the late war.

NEW HAMPSHIRE LAWYER FLIES FIRST IRISH FLAG

Concord, N. H., Dec. 8.—The flag of the Irish Free State, the first to appear in New Hampshire, following the announcement of an Irish settlement, was unfurled at the law office of Major James P. Brennan of Peterborough. The flag is a brand new one, with the colors chosen by the Irish state, green, white and orange. It attracted a great deal of attention from those that view the flag often during the day.

MERCURY AT COLDEST MARK OF THE SEASON

Today was the coldest day so far this season, with a temperature of 24 degrees at 7 a. m., according to the Boston weather bureau. The official forecast, however, promises warmer temperatures tonight, with unsettled weather, possibly snow, and moderate variable winds. The snow will be part of a storm now centered on the lower Mississippi, expected to move eastward and then north.

CRIME EXPERT IS ADMIRER OF WALLINGFORD

Carrington Says Swindler Is Splendid Example of Personal Magnetism

By H. CARRINGTON, Ph.D., Author of "Modern Psychological Phenomena," "The Problem of Psychological Research," etc.

The psychology of the criminal is a relatively new science. Until lately, it was thought that the criminal was merely a hardened rascal, who must be punished and put into prison. But now we believe that it is largely because he is mentally, morally and physically sick that he is what he is. He should be treated and cured, not punished.

There are all kinds of "crazies" in the world from plain hold-up and "sneak-thief" men to swindlers who employ all the fine arts of psychology in their work. "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford" is a swindler of the latter class.

SWINDLER REFORMS

He undoubtedly started out as plain swindler; but Fate stepped in. In the form of a girl, and changed his outlook upon life, so that he wished to reform. By a combination of happy circumstances he actually made good and became an honest man in spite of himself. And there was much good in J. Rufus.

FEENEY MAKES NEW MOVE IN LOUD CASE

Files Exceptions in Superior Court for Man Accused as Wakefield Slayer

John P. Feeney of counsel for Clarence W. Loud, awaiting trial on the charge of murdering Patrolman James A. Preston of Wakefield, today filed exceptions in the Superior Criminal Court at East Cambridge.

One exception was based on the recent ruling of Judge John F. Brown, who overruled the objection of Feeney to the appearance of Endicott Peabody Saltonstall, new district attorney of the Northern District, as prosecuting officer in the Loud case.

The second exception was based on the charge that, after the objection was made, the court permitted Saltonstall to act as district attorney and to argue against a plea in abatement to a motion to quash argued by Feeney in behalf of Loud.

GILBODY WANTS BABY CLINICS EXTENDED

A larger appropriation for the health department to permit the establishment of municipal baby clinics in every section of the city was urged by George D. Gilbody, Y. D. veteran candidate for the City Council, in an address before the Y. D. club in South Boston and Hyde Park today. He was accompanied by ex-Mayor John F. Fitzgerald and Congressman James A. Callahan.

Gilbody favored a more frequent selection of salaried and salaried women to serve as nurses and midwives, and urged that both the suburbs and congested sections of the city be included under the present system.

"I will favor every means at the command of a councillor to bring about a five-cent carefree if I am elected," Gilbody said.

IRISH MUSIC PROVES MAGNET AT NATIONAL

Irishmen like Irish music. This is proved nightly at the National Theatre, Tremont and Berkeley streets, in the large audience in attendance at the "Night in Ireland." The good old Irish airs played by Hugh McDougal and Eileen Shannon are enjoyed by all. Mr. McDougal is considered one of the best Irish players in this country. Miss Shannon's violin numbers are vigorously applauded. Emmet Moore, the Irish actor-singer, as Rory O'More, the Irish rebel, is received with a ovation at each performance.

Revelry Olcott sings the sweet melodies of Ireland in an excellent manner. Eileen Carr, Catherine Fitzgibbon and Beatrice Finney are other favorites in the cast of characters.

You are the Mother of our Bond —

YOU may not have been one of those thousands of women who brought us their freshly-baked home-made bread in order to show us how they wanted their bread to be made —

Perhaps you discovered only recently how pure and homelike Bond Bread is.

Perhaps you may be one of the few who haven't discovered it at all.

But, just the same, you are the mother of our Bond. It is you — the woman who knows good bread — the woman who knows what should go into the dough in order to make good bread — it is you who have inspired the goodness of Bond Bread.

And, above all, it is you — the head of the family — who inspired the Bond which gives Bond Bread its name.

When we say in our Bond, "To whom it may concern," we mean you. When we guarantee that Bond Bread contains only the very purest ingredients — finest flour — whole milk — real lard — granulated sugar — table salt — and fresh compressed yeast — we have your picture before us.

It is more than a cold legal Bond that we give you — it is a personal Bond — a personal pledge — a personal contract by which we obligate ourselves to you.

LEADING A FAYT LIFT! "Bugs" McGowan, daredevil flyer, is rightly named when he gets pleasure out of stunts like this. Shows leaning from a speeding airplane onto an auto going 80 miles an hour at Jacksonville, Fla. He is shown just as he let go the wing kid.

"ATMOSPHERE"—and Plenty of it! These are the ladies who form the background of most of your funny films. They are always on call, and lay it from one studio to the other. Most of 'em have valuable and use an automobile as a dressing room rather than have gems in studios.

GEE, That Looks Good! Wonder if that is what these kids of the Island of Sumatra are saying as they watch this street candy maker at his trade. Curiously shaped, colored sugar birds are the favorite confection. The sweetest man is shown engaged in coloring some of his product. Note the expression on the children's faces. (G.)

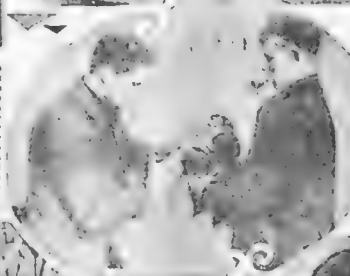

WHAT the Sea Saw at Atlantic City! Gladys Frazer of N. Y., ruffled the waves in this black velvet suit, trimmed with ermine. Muff is of white ermine and monkey fur. (U. & U.)

LADIES, DON'T BE ROUGH! If you say so, I say, I'll say you mean. Anyway, they want to become thinner than yesterday morning's milk. Just a few Los Angeles reducing squad. They are really reducing, too, under scientific guidance.

SAVE EVERY CINDER You Get in Your Eye! You can use them in building a house. Seriously, water bricks, made from ordinary coal cinders and chemicals, are said to be 30 per cent. cheaper than brick or tile. Are non-conductors of heat and cold. Invented by Frank Cardery of N. Y. JOCK HUTCHISON TELLS HOW HANDS CONTROL STAR GOLF SHOTS

By JOCK HUTCHISON

For a great many years, I have been a student of the golf game, and I have learned the most of golfing critics and players accept it as a truism.

That the hands are the key to the golf game, and that the hands are the key to the golf game, and that the hands are the key to the golf game.

It is a truism that the hands are the key to the golf game, and that the hands are the key to the golf game, and that the hands are the key to the golf game.

Any competitor knows it is impossible for both hands to work in unison doing anything in the golf game unless it is swinging a golf club. In the swinging of a golf club, the hands are the key to the golf game.

If a golfer does not swing a golf club with his hands, he will not be a golfer. The hands are the key to the golf game, and that the hands are the key to the golf game.

Try this on the necktie you are wearing

Take a good look at the four-in-hand you're wearing. Chances are it has a bunched appearance, and that lower down is a roll or twist. Now look at the WEARPLUS Tie in the right-hand illustration—note the neat, shapely knot—compare the smooth, flat, dressy appearance of the WEARPLUS.

The Tie Without Lining, Padding or Wadding

Now turn up the end of your tie and open it up. Note the strip of flannel lining. THAT lining is the cause of all tie troubles—the lining will roll, bunch up, twist, pull, and hold wrinkles. Do what you will, WEARPLUS has NO lining—it is tailored and joined in a new way to give that neat, smooth appearance always. And it's reversible. A few minutes pressing out and you have a NEW tie again—the most economical as well as the neatest and dressiest tie.
